

STAFF DIRECTORY

SOUTHERN REGIONAL CENTRE
55 Priors Pocket Road
Moggill
PO Box 42
KENMORE, Qld 4069
Phone (07) 202 0200

RON ALFORD - Accounts, Moreton sub-region; issue purchase orders; process accounts for payment 'worship' computer (what a pain in the a...); placate suppliers waiting for payment of invoices; use initiative within reasonable guidelines to accomplish.

Previously worked as

Various rural pursuits plus allied 'voluntary' work. A short stint (4 1/2 years) with Medical Benefits Fund (Qld).

Joined Service in mid 1985 after 20 weeks CEP job.

Areas of expertise

For those who really know me, let them make fair comment. Ability to not divulge information when asked a question.

Areas of special interest

An underlying interest to leave Australia a better place to live.

Trade skills/academic qualifications

Academic qualifications nil, as such, but I've met a lot of competent people without academic qualifications.

Is that what you look like under that beard Dick?

DICK ALLISON - Zoologist working on

1. Compiling fauna lists
2. Looking at 'Regular Taxon Review'
3. Diamantina Fauna Survey writing up

Previously worked as

Zoologist - Fauna Conservation Branch DPI; Agricultural extension officer DPI

Joined Service in - 1975

Dick the dedicated can usually be found working at Moggill on weekends.

Areas of expertise

Taxonomy and distribution

Areas of special interest

Taxonomy and distribution of bats, fleas and insects parasitic on bats

Trade skills/academic qualifications

Bachelor of Science (Zoology and Botany)
- Leeds, Grad Dip in Environmental Studies - QIT

DAVE BATT - Acting Regional Interpretive Officer (Moreton)

Previously worked as:

Officer in Charge South Cooloola
1982-February 1986 Workman - Main Range
1981-1982.

Joined the Service in 1981

Areas of expertise:

Park management, especially concessionaire liaison; recreational management; management planning; integrating interp & management; track design and construction. Captain Batt is an expert on just about everything.

Areas of special interest

Environmental education/interpretation; national park management for conservation.

Trade skills/academic qualifications

Assoc. Diploma Rural Techniques (WR & W)
- Gatton

VIC BUSHING - Wildlife Ranger, Moreton

Previously worked as

District, Ranger Moreton & Canning
Overseer, Moreton Island; Research
Assistant University of Queensland; Lab
Technician SEQEB.

Joined Service in 1981

Areas of expertise

Moreton Island

Areas of special interest

Moreton Island and playing the wag

Trade skills/academic qualifications

B. App. Sc. (Biology)

MIKE CONNOLLY - Alias Father, Senior Wildlife Ranger (Southern Region); 6 program co-ordinator, Southern Region.

Previously worked as

District Wildlife Ranger, Townsville

Joined Service in 1975

Areas of expertise

Enforcement and wildlife conservation management

Areas of special interest

Growing Australian native plants, horse racing and Scotch. He is also on the lookout for a good sort.

Trade skills/academic qualifications

None - Jack of all trades - master of none.

NOEL DAWSON - Regional Director
Alias Smokey.

Previously worked as
Director Land Resources Research QDPI

Joined Service in 1984 Only a new recruit

Areas of expertise
Planning; land resource assessment & doodling.

Areas of special interest
Regional planning; bushwalking; canoeing; surfing.

Trade skills/academic qualifications
M. Agric. Sci.

LUCIELLE MICHELL EVANS - Data input into MSA accounting package, general office duties.

Previously worked as
Stenographer - Department of Labour relations

Joined Service: May 1985

Areas of expertise
Find lost files
Stuffing up the computer

Areas of special interest
Squash, water-skiing, camping.

DEREK ELSDON - Cleaner

Previously worked as
wood machinist

Joined Service: 1981

Areas of expertise
cabinet making, wood turning

Areas of special interest
Prospecting and a drop of scotch

Trade skills/academic qualifications
Lasted through 5 years apprenticeship

WENDY DRAKE - Inspection of proposal areas; compilation of species lists/botanical information for resource assessment and management plans.

Previously worked as

Tutor; research assistant; laboratory assistant (Mycology) - University of Queensland.

Joined Service in 1984Areas of expertise

Botanical teaching & general botany. Wendy could easily make a living selling her handicraft work.

Areas of special interest

Plant reproduction ecology especially in coastal heaths and eucalypt forest natural history of plants & handicraft work.

Trade skills/academic qualifications

B. Sc (Hons) +

GREG GORDON - Research Co-ordinator, Southern Region; Koala research, Qld

Previously worked as

Koala research, Emerald, Townsville, Warwick; Fauna survey; Hairy-nosed wombat research; Bridled naitail wallaby research.

Joined Service in - 1971Areas of expertise

Population biology; Fauna survey. Marriage (been married nearly a year now).

Areas of special interest

Koalas

Trade skills/academic qualifications

B.Sc, Ph.D. (Zoology)

MARK GOUGH - Regional Management Officer; management planning special planning tasks, liaison with other Government Departments; administration.

Previously worked as

Technical projects officer head office - 5 years; overseer Woodgate National Park 1 year.

Joined Service in 1979Areas of expertise

Leasing, planning, acquisitions, estate legislation & marriage (been married a few months).

Areas of special interest

Acquisition planning and liason re sand mass areas. Professional Development (RAIPR). Fishing and the odd ale.

Trade skills/academic qualifications

Landscape gardening; stone/concrete work; Bachelor Science (Hons); Botany

PAUL GRIMSHAW - Carrying out resource assessment for Service proposals and on existing NP's and reserves for resource data base.

Previously worked as
District ranger - Eastern Scenic Rim.

Joined Service in 1971

Areas of expertise
Botanical surveys and other resource data collection and collation

Areas of special interest
Natural history in general as well as botany in particular. Paul is a very modest but quite professional artist.

Trade skills/academic qualifications
None - unless you class 15 years experience with NP's in both field and admin sphere as a skill or qualification.

DEBBIE HOTCHKIS - All facets of Wildlife Management: Rescuing wildlife/injured & orphaned rearing; issuing licences, Permits and Authorities; general enquiries, phone and counter; Law Enforcement Activities; Aviculture and Fauna Dealers enquiries.

Previously worked as
Medical and hospital claims assessor

Joined Service in 1982

Areas of expertise
Orphaned fauna: mammals and birds

Areas of special interest
Koala; wild & diseased wildlife in the Brisbane area. She has special interest in rum and beer.

Trade skills/academic qualifications
Vet nursing course.

Phantom man

GARY INNIS - Ranger Div I - Research and Planning (1) Complete fruit pigeon paper. (2) Write paper on feeding ecology of green catbird (3) Computer input of koala project data. Gary is the Service sergeant of arms.

Joined Service in 1977

Areas of expertise
(a) Rainforest fruit-eating birds
(b) Fruiting habits of rainforest trees
(c) Vegetation typing and mapping

Areas of special interest
(a) & (b) above and photography of same; fauna and flora survey work generally; skinning cats.

Trade skills/academic qualifications
Assoc Dip App Biol - QIT

DUNCAN JOHNSTON - Ganger, Moggill Grounds maintenance & chauffeur of F110's.

Previously worked as
A cleaner.

Joined Service in 1980

Areas of special interest
Plants, photography & his family.

Trade skills/academic qualifications
QAC graduate.

DES JONES - Regional Superintendent

Previously worked as
District Ranger, Moreton; District
Ranger, Downs South-West;
Technician/Experimentalist DPI

Joined Service in 1980

Areas of special interest
RNC; Development & planning, music, religion, boating & old cars.

Trade skills/academic qualifications
CBLT (QIT); RTC (TAFE). Everyone should have a CBLT & a RTC don't you think?

ALEX KOWALSKI - Clerk 1-1 Administration duties

Previously worked as
Accountant; storeman; clerk

Joined Service in 1976

Areas of special interest
The Gospel of Jesus Christ; the Holy
Bible; natural health & tennis.

Trade skills/academic qualifications
Senior - Brisbane State High School;
Certificate in basic computer
Programming (intro) at Control Data Institute.

PAUL KUMMEROW - District Ranger,
Moreton - park management, interp,
wildlife RNC, development planning.

Previously worked as Farmwork carpenter, fruit picker, building labourer, powder monkey's
assistant; rock driller; barman;
jackeroo; tuna fisher; bread vendor;
painter etc, Royal Australian Navy -
Cadet Midshipman.

Joined Service in 1981

Areas of expertise
Development planning. Excavator operator extrodinair.

Areas of special interest
Botany; drafting; writing; landscape;
gardening & catching people out.

Trade skills/academic qualifications
QAC graduate.

CHRIS LAHEY - Regional Administration Officer; Responsible for all administrative matters within the Southern Region.

Previously worked as Clerk - Department of Primary Industries

Joined Service in 1984

Areas of expertise

Budget matters; staff matters; accounting procedures; purchasing procedures.

Areas of special interest

All administrative matters relating to this Service. Squash, water skiing & tractors. S...H...I...T.

BRIGITTE MAKI-NESTE - Switchboard, typing, telex.

Previously worked as Stenographer for Solicitor

Joined Service in 1986

Areas of expertise

As above. Eating snakes.

Areas of special interest

Writing naughty stories.

Trade skills/academic qualifications

Typing, Shorthand

Is also a silly person, due to excessive hours on switch.

See photo for details.

Note the eyes.

DAVID MCFARLAND - Field scientist studying the behaviour, ecology and distribution of Ground Parrots in south-east Queensland.

Previously worked as

Ph.D student at UNE studying behaviour and ecology of honeyeaters.; Part-time research assistant and demonstrator.

Joined Service in 1986

Areas of expertise

Zoology, especially behaviour and ecology of birds. Great sense of humour.

Areas of special interest

Social behaviour and spacing systems in animals. We don't really know, but he sure is a good looker.

Trade skills/academic qualifications

B.Sc (Hons) University of Sydney;

IAN LEWIS - Moreton Bay overseer, boat skipper, radio technetics, tradesman, boat builder.

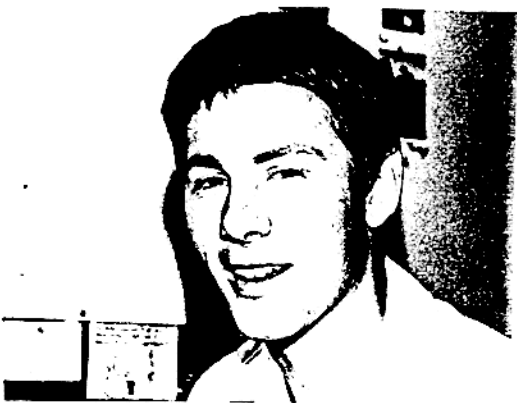

Previously worked as
Boat builder; industrial builder

Joined Service in 1978

Areas of expertise
Engineering, boating and building.
U-boat skipper.

Areas of special interest
Radio and electrical

Trade skills/academic qualifications
Sheet metal worker; industrial builder; plumbing.

DEREK MAHONEY - Overseer II Moreton and Canning

Previously worked as
A volunteer at Bogo Road

Joined Service: September 1987

Areas of special interest
Explosives and big bangs!

Academic qualifications
AD. RT. WRW @ QAC??

DIANNE MACLEAN - Acting Regional Overseer, Public Relations.

Previously worked as
Jillaroo, station cook, tram conductress, bar attendant, receptionist, deckhand prawn trawlers, purser and cook on the Golden Plover.

Joined Service: September 1987.

Areas of expertise
Paddling outrigger canoes, cooking and eating
Areas of special interest: Anything that's free
Academic qualifications: Ass. Dip. W.R.W. - QAC

TONY O'KEEFE - Acting (pretending) District Ranger Moreton Island and Canning.

Previously worked as
Cleaner, gardener, labourer, landscaper.

Joined Service: February 1985, Ganger at Glasshouse Mountains.

Areas of expertise
Surfing, sailboarding and surfing.

Areas of special interest
Botany, biology, girls, girls, girls.

Trade skills/academic qualifications
Assoc. Dip. in W.R.W. - QAC

GARRY MOLONEY - Officer in charge of the Police Fauna Squad, Moggill

Previously worked as

Detective at Brisbane, Petrie, Cunnamulla and Sandgate

Joined the Police Force in 1969 and the Fauna Squad in 1986.

Areas of expertise

Criminal investigation; fauna and associated offences

Areas of special interest

As above

Trade skills/academic qualifications
Senior pass.

NOELINE KUNST - Consultant Zoologist under contract to 'The Koala Management Plan for the Bremer Catchment' research project.

Previously worked as
Full-time student

Areas of expertise
Teddies

Academic qualifications
Dip. Ed. - Kelvin Grove
Currently enrolled at QIT doing Masters in Zoology.

KEVIN SHAW - Overseer III - presently researching at Moggill
Joined Service in 1983

Areas of expertise

photographing unco-operative staff members

Areas of special interest

Talking to people, birds (the feathered kind)

Trade skills/academic qualifications

Welder, Bricklayer

RIC NATRASS - Public Inquiry/Complaints relating to Wildlife; Law Enforcement; wildlife rescue; problem solving relating to wildlife.

Previously worked as

Training Officer Department of Children's Services.

Joined Service in 1984

Areas of expertise

Reptile and amphibians 'Problem' species in an urban environment. Interpretation - no crowd too big.

Areas of special interest

The snakes of South-east Queensland and 'Problem' species in an urban environment. The opposite sex.

Trade skills/academic qualifications

Furniture designer/maker 1978-1983;

LIZ NAUMANN - Interpretive Ranger -
Wide-Bay/Burnett Sub-Region

Previously worked as

Worker, Ganger, Natural Bridge, Ganger
Green Mts, Overseer Moggill

Joined Service in 1981 & has hardly left Green Mountains since. Couldn't even get her away for her wedding.

Areas of expertise

Interpretation, production of publications, signs, displays, junior ranger program.

Areas of special interest

Growing rainforest plants, environmental education, Early Australian furniture, tapestry & husband Ross.

Trade skills/academic qualifications

Assoc Dip Rural Techniques (Wilderness reserves and wildlife).

PETER OGILVIE - Preparing book on the human history and natural history of the Capricornia/Bunker Islands. Research project (with Queensland University) on black noddies - parasites and their potential to infect humans, plus breeding of the black noddy.

Previously worked as

Director of Marine Parks; Officer in charge Technical Services Section;
National Park Zoologist (Forestry Dept).

Joined Service in 1975 (at foundation)

Areas of expertise

Marine Park management, national park management, interpretation, research, training etc. Have had experience in virtually all areas of Service responsibility. Peter is never lost for words and usually manages to have the last one. He has given lots of good and valued advice in the interp field.

Areas of special interest

Historical relationships between human activities and wildlife, particularly in relation to islands.

Trade skills/academic qualifications

Bachelor of Science

WARREN OXNAM - Management Officer
(Southern Region) - St Helena project
co-ordination - management planning

Previously worked as Management officer (HO); environment
parks officer (HO); technical project officer (HO).

Areas of expertise
Management planning; historic site
conservation; surveying & being a Dad.

Areas of special interest
Historic site conservation; environmental park management

Trade skills/academic qualifications
Bachelor of Surveying; Master of Urban & Regional Planning.

ROSS PATTERSON - National Koala survey;
co-ordinating koala survey work
throughout Queensland.

Previously worked as
Agricultural researcher

Joined Service in 1986

Areas of expertise
Soil fertility; plant nutrition

Areas of special interest
Nutrient cycling in forests; rainforest plants & enjoying life.

Trade skills/academic qualifications
B. Agr. Science

FRED PRANT - Senior Overseer - in Charge of Regional Centre maintenance and Regional and Statewide Stores.

Previously worked as
Builder - Antarctic Expeditioner

Joined Service in 1979

Areas of expertise
Building Supervisor - Stores Management
& yodelling.

Areas of special interest
Landscaping; youth, (apprentice)
training, Antarctic Club (Polar Affairs)
Living a full life.

Trade skills/academic qualifications
Qualified carpenter, builder - certificate of training within industry
- explosive tools licence.

ROB SHEAFFE - Regional Overseer - Natural Resource Management

Previously worked as
Farmer (small crops and livestock)
Joined Service: 16 February 1987

Areas of expertise: Stealing cookies from staff tearoom, doing other people's dirty work at Moggill, eating, drinking and especially bludging (I'm a real waste of space)
Areas of special interest: Flying and classic aircraft, surfing, fishing, bushwalking and my family.

Trade skills/academic qualifications: Bachelo
of Natural Resources - UNE ARMIDALE

YVONNE REYNOLDS - Archaeologist - Historian St Helena Island. Identify and record historic relics. Advise on preservation of historical information to complete a catalogue of extant documents.

Previously worked as

Teacher, Education Officer at University Antiquities Museum, Salaries Clerk, Head Office Q.NPWS.

Joined Service in 1984

Areas of expertise

Historical research

Areas of special interest

Building methods and materials; Colonial Australia.

Trade skills/academic qualifications

Primary Teacher's Certificate (Burwood, Vic); Art and Craft Teacher's Certificate (Melbourne, Vic) BA (Uni. of Queensland); 1982-83 Scholar in Archaeology.

GAVIN RICKETTS - Police Fauna Squad, Moggill. Investigation illegal activities involving fauna, National Parks etc.

Previously worked as

Detective with Juvenile Aid Bureau in Brisbane.

Joined Service in 1986

Areas of expertise

Investigative; bush activities

Areas of special interest

Bushwalking; 4WD'ing; camping etc; reading.

Trade skills/academic qualifications

Senior. Police Departmental car courses.

Police Departmental Investigative courses. Holder of Police arts and Sciences certificate.

CAROLYN SANDERCOE - Southern Region Botanist; research and planning branch

Joined Service in 1978

Areas of expertise

Fire grazing research; vegetation mapping; plant identification; weeds; resource and processes information. Japanese flower arranging.

Areas of special interest

Fire research; anything to do with plants.

Academic qualifications

B. Sc. (Hons)

TRACTOR LICENSE!

ELAINE SKINNER - Alias Mother, Word processing; telex; switchboard; typing; accounts computer.

Previously worked as
Clerk - Main Roads

Joined Service in 1985

Areas of expertise
As above

Areas of special interest
Dressmaking; knitting; crochet & starring in Brigitte's naughty stories.

Trade skills/academic qualifications
Achievers Business Training Centre Course.

PETER THEILMANN - Ganger, Moggill looking after the animal compound and animals at Moggill.

Previously worked as Slaughterman.

Joined Service in 1987

Areas of expertise
Mechanical skills

Trade skills/academic qualifications
General mechanical skills. School of life - have a go at anything.

STACEY THOMSON - Sub-Regional Overseer; communication co-ordinator of activities in sub-region.

Previously worked as
Overseer III - St Helena, Interp, tours of ruins. Workperson on Main Range National Park; Lamington National Park - Green Mountains.

Joined Service in 1984

Areas of expertise
Inter. (esp. guided tours of ruins at St Helena); dealing with the public.

Areas of special interest
public interaction (liaison); interpretation; history of sites.

Trade skills/academic qualifications
QAC graduate.

JERRY VAN DELFT - District Ranger - Central Scenic Rim.

Previously worked as
District Overseer, Central Scenic Rim/Canning.

Joined Service in - 1981

Areas of expertise
Giving up smoking.

Trade skills/academic qualifications
QAC graduate.

NEIL WHITE - Consultant Zoologist under contract to 'The Koala Management Plan for the Bremer Catchment' research project

Areas of expertise
Teddies

Special interests
Astrology, booze and girls

Academic qualifications
Zoology Degree - QIT
Completed Masters in Mammal Populations.

GORDON WILKINSON - Resource assessment and planning sub-program - resource inventory 3YI natural resource assessment.

Joined Service at inception (1975)

Areas of expertise
RNC; natural environmental issues; EIS

Areas of special interest
RNC

Trade skills/academic qualifications
Agriculture; environmental science.

JOE ROGGENBUCK - Visiting Lecturer - Park management and interpretation.

Joined Service: as visitor in June 1987

Areas of expertise: Psychological benefits of national parks, interpretation for management purposes, visitor surveys.

Areas of special interest: Sex hockey, baseball - cricket puts me to sleep, Australian beaches (one-piece bikinis), Australian wine.

Trade skills/academic qualifications
? - BS - nature interpretation
? - MS - natural resources planning
Ph D - Forest Recreation

YOUR SUB REGION STAFF DIRECTORY

IS NEXT

"BRUSHTALE" SUB REGION

X-MAS ISSUE - MORETON

EASTER " " - TOOWOOMBA

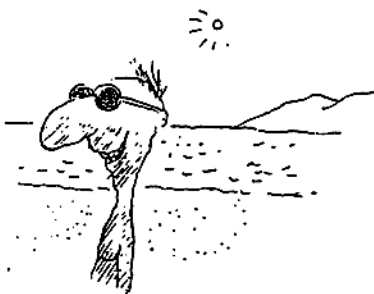

WINTER " " - WIDE BAY BURNETT

SO GET A HAIRCUT, SHAVE & SHAMPOO, TRIM
YOUR BEARD, IRON YOUR UNIFORM AND SMILE.
BECAUSE WE ARE GOING TO GET A BPW PHOTO
OF YOU.

AHH SUMMER....!

Le Specs....

Le fan....

Le Flies

Le Broken Glass.

Le Bushfire !

Le Fight in Le Pub

Le Car Accident.

Le Depression

Le Madness

Le Hot North Wind.

LE SUMMER!

